

FINANCIAL AID DEADLINE

Monday, March 8, 2021

An investment of your time today can have a positive impact on your finances down the road. Here are a few examples of approximately 63 endowed scholarships that JD students may be eligible to apply for.

Walter F. Alexander III Memorial Scholarship

This scholarship was established in memory of Walter F. Alexander III, who, as a student at Pacific McGeorge, made the Dean's List, was a finalist in the Moot Court competition, and played an active role in classroom debate and in intramural sports. Walt thrived on the academic challenge and had an unmatched passion for life, admired by his friends and classmates.

Alumni Association Endowed Scholarship

The Alumni Association Board selects recipients for these scholarships and participates actively in the fundraising efforts. One of these scholarships honors Pacific McGeorge graduate, Ruth J. Squire, Class of 1964 who served as Placement and Admissions Officer prior to her death in 1975. She is memorialized in an annual award to an Evening Division student.

Gary V. Schaber Memorial Scholarship

This endowed scholarship was established by family and friends of Gary V. Schaber, Associate Dean for Administration, upon his untimely passing in 1981. At least a second year student who demonstrates an outstanding commitment, not only to the study of law, but to student life at Pacific McGeorge and particularly the improvement of relations between all segments of the Pacific McGeorge community; financial need and academic achievement are considered.
